- Find humor in difficult situations
- Discover 16 ways that cancer was a gift
- Learn 10 good things about having no hair
- Apply cancer lessons to other personal challenges

Denise Dangler, Caregiver

"I can't thank you enough for this book. Not only is it completely full of courage, it has helped my 'freaked-out' husband to stop and see that he needs and wants, most of all, to be there right at my side."

Dave and Chris Balch survived a nine month battle with breast cancer, together. Dave says, “It was her job to get better. It was my job to do everything else.” Now he is on a personal, full-time mission to “Help the patients by helping the partners” with
