Praise for "Cancer for Two"

"HOPE - - - it's on every page!"

Carla Doyle, Cancer Patient

"I can't thank you enough for this book. Not only is it completely full of courage, it has completely turned my "freaked-out" husband... to stop dead in his tracks and come back to see that he needs and wants, most of all, to be there right at my side."

~Gwynith Brennan, Cancer Patient

"Your book has really helped me and let me know what I am feeling is not weird. I really enjoyed your book. Thank you for letting me know I am normal."

~Denise Dangler, Caregiver

"I am going thru chemo treatments now. I downloaded [Cancer for Two] so both my husband and I could read it at the same time. I couldn't wait for the book to arrive in the mail so I read the entire download the first day. I loved it! Thanks so much for your wonderful book."

~Jody Taylor, Cancer Patient

"It is awesome and inspiring and will shine a bright light for so many. You have turned something so difficult to face and fight into something of great courage and dignity. Well done!"

~Kendall S. Wagner, MD
Orthopedic Surgeon

"Cancer is more curable with a caregiver that's a love-giver support system. Here's the glorious 'how-to'"

~Mark Victor Hansen and Jack Canfield,
Co-authors, "Chicken Soup for the Survivor's Soul"

"Honest, funny, and touching, Cancer for Two will inspire you with Dave and Chris's attitude and courage. Walk with them through that cancer door and find... hope."

~Gregory J.P. Godek,
Author, "1001 Ways to be Romantic"

"[Cancer for Two] is factual and current and closely relates to what we are going through right now. We were looking for hope and encouragement, along with facts; we found all that and more. One thing Dave said that I have adopted myself... 'don't go there, till you get there'...very profound!! I take it with me everywhere!"

~Jo Epperson, Cancer Patient

"Every family with a cancer patient needs this book because we all walk the same footsteps. ...what you have done is create an immediate and complete 'support group' in a book. If I were an oncologist, I would make sure all of my patients had it. The book is fantastic: it needs to be out there!"

~Robert Kotler, MD, FACS
Clinical Instructor, UCLA
Author, "*Secrets of a Beverly Hills
Cosmetic Surgeon*"

"You've found a way to put heart and humor into braving the cancer diagnosis and recovery. It's not sugarcoated – it's the real deal. GREAT FOR YOU!"

~Judith Parker Harris
Author, "Conquer Crisis with Health-esteem"

"...what a gift! ...whenever I don't feel right or [the doctor] says I'm dropping weight again, I'll just tuck your book of courage under my arm and stand tall and smiling."

~Linda Nafzgar, Cancer Survivor

"I was very moved by your words and what you and Chris have endured. It was a very emotional book for me... lots of crying and laughing, too! Thank you for the experience! I am confident that others will be enriched by what you and Chris have experienced and have chosen to share with the world."

~Julie Oaks, Dental Hygienist
